

Super Ball 2022

MONEY RECOMMENDATIONS

Just like in 2021, this year we have decided to provide you with full service: we will try to keep all your needs under one roof as much as possible so you don't have to wander around the city too much.

It is always better to have cash at hand so you can use it in small stores, but usually in most shops you can pay by credit card. All supermarkets and modern shops accept a variety of credit cards.

The average dinner at a lower-class restaurant in Vysočany costs around €10 with a drink. If you are willing to eat there every day, it means approximately €70 for dinners. The McDonald's menu is €8 so you can count on spending some €130 for meals overall for the whole week. At the Food Court of the Fenix Mall there is a variety of options every day - and it is literally next to the hotel reception!

Many people are also comfortable with shopping in Billa (located on the ground floor of the Fenix Mall) and then eating sandwiches or instant noodles. At the Clarion, we are not in close range of a 24/7 Tesco, but there are some smaller convenience stores close to the venue which open from 7:00h to 20:00h every day. Getting your meals there is way cheaper and you can cook everything at the hotel.

Public transportation for 90 minutes anywhere costs €1,20.

In case you want to do some travelling around Prague, be it before or after the event, you will need at least €50 per day for a travel card, whole day meals and souvenirs.

We recommend budgeting €250 to enjoy a brilliant week full of luxury.

Attention: In the Czech Republic you cannot pay in euros. You will need to exchange your money for Czech korunas to be able to operate and buy stuff. The easiest is to change euros (€), but you will be able to change US dollars ($) or British pounds (£) easily.

- More information about the Czech koruna here
- Average prices in the Czech Republic here